

QuaMMELOT

Each activity is built over more than one class session, the number of suggested sessions will be apparent in the particular activity guide. You are not expected to try all the activities in class, but work with the activities that you find most relevant and exciting for your class teaching. In some of the activities it is suggested to combine different subjects i.e. language courses and art classes. Please, notice that the time indication for the activities are suggestive, the teacher might decide to spend more time to go in greater depth with the topic.

The activities concern:

Cooking | Movies | Exhibition | Radio | Books
